

MID-WEIGHT INTERIOR DESIGNER

The Company

Mdesign has built a reputation as one of London's most innovative, creative and professional design led real estate companies. Our team has extensive experience in acquiring and developing some of London's finest real estate.

The company has continued to thrive from project to project and has achieved many accolades for its design work. This has led to additional consultancy instructions by private clients, either working on their own developments or personal residences.

The Candidate

- Highly structured and organised
- Committed to team success
- Effective time management
- Excellent attention to detail
- A clear verbal communicator with good interpersonal skills
- High standard of written communication
- Good at developing relationships with clients and sub-contractors
- Able to work using own initiative
- Ability to travel to the various project sites
- An extensive knowledge of FF&E suppliers

The Role

As a mid-weight Interior designer you will be reporting internally, assisting the Design Director to deliver super-prime luxury schemes.

- Composing design schemes and putting together presentations
- Interior space planning
- Joinery and bespoke furniture concept design
- Specifying FF&E, soft and hard finishes
- Cost controlling and budgeting
- Input into drawing packages including space planning, elevations and joinery
- FF&E, design and finishes schedules
- Project and site coordination and management

Skills Required

- AutoCad
- SketchUp
- EstiPC
- 3+ years' experience in the high-end residential sector

Package

- Usual working hours are 9am to 6pm, Monday to Friday
- 20 days' annual leave, one additional day for each year worked up to 25 days
- Workplace pension scheme
- A company healthcare policy is offered at the discretion of management
- At the discretion of management, the office usually closes over the Christmas period - we do not ask employees to use their annual leave for this